All military members living or working on Edwards AFB utilize a military email address. This address was used by the Public Affairs office to issue notifications to the "Edwards All Personnel" distribution list. See attached copy of the email release which included the direct CCR link.

The Public Affairs office sent multiple email notifications to the base populace that the CCR has been published with direct links. The Public Affairs office also included the direct links in their weekly newsletter. See attached copy of the newsletter.

In an attempt to reach all residents (to include spouses without access to military email addresses) an electronic copy of the CCR was sent to the directors of the privatized on-base housing company for further distribution. The housing directors emailed all residents on 28 Jun 19 informing the residents the CCR was ready. The email included the name/contact information for the Point-of-Contact if residents would like to obtain a paper copy of the CCR.
