Consumer Confidence Report Electronic Delivery Certification

Water systems utilizing electronic distribution methods for CCR delivery must complete this page by checking all items that apply and fill-in where appropriate.

- Water system mailed a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publicly available website where it can be viewed (attach a copy of the mailed CCR notification). URL: www.nmwd.com/wq
- Water system emailed a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publicly available site on the Internet where it can be viewed (attach a copy of the emailed CCR notification). URL: www._____
- Water system emailed the CCR as an electronic file email attachment.
- Water system emailed the CCR text and tables inserted or embedded into the body of an email, not as an attachment (attach a copy of the emailed CCR).
- Requires prior DDW review and approval.* Water system utilized other electronic delivery method that meets the direct delivery requirement.

Provide a brief description of the water system's electronic delivery procedures and include how the water system ensures delivery to customers unable to receive electronic delivery.

A postcard was mailed to each postal customer served by the district advertising the availability of the CCR on the district's website at nmwd/com/wq. The postcard displayed the message in English on one side and Spanish on the other. A message was also included that a paper copy could be requested. Customers that had previously asked for a hardcopy had one mailed to them automatically.

The report was posted in English and the Spanish version will be posted there shortly.
Additionally, messages on the district's social media accounts went out advertising the availability of the Water Quality Report on the district's website. NMWD has accounts that carried this message on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

This form is provided as a convenience and may be used to meet the certification requirement of section 64483(c) of the California Code of Regulations.
