Summer thinking and doing

ing not only for the summer year through.

In recent articles, I reflected on a life-long endeavor, we need to consider how we our money and our time. In how and why we live. Havebrated America at 250, how think of ourselves? Are we munity that is diverse, hardig, ready to help the neighbor, us when we see others in need? repeat the litany of wonderful yfit groups in Borrego that do ch such good—scholarships, sistance and more. These witwho we are as much as flags.

We cannot ignore the difides of life these days, the di, the hardships of inflation, ong emotions that political and events provoke in us. If sider what is important to us, st see that we ought not lose

What do we do to protect it? We are proud of being Americans. But that means coming to terms with some bad moments in the past as well as in the present. It is core to our country that we learn again to share and care for each other. How are we helping our young people to have a future in this land? So much to ponder. It's summer, a time of celebration, reflection and commitment to doing and being good.
