VMWC maintains and regularly updates an email list for all customers. All customers have a current and active email address that is used for all VMWC communications. These email addresses were used to directly send the CCR as a PDF file. Included in the email that accompanied the CCR was a statement that if the customer was unable to access the PDF for whatever reason, or if they wish to have a hard copy in addition to the PDF, they can contact the VMWC President (with contact information provided). In addition, we will include information about the CCR in the upcoming quarterly VMWC newsletter, informing customers of the delivery of the emailed PDF as well as avenues through which to obtain a hard copy version if desired.
