Discussed: Timber Cove County Water District 2021 Consumer Report available now

Dear community;

Every year the water district releases a report called the consumer confidence report for the prior year . The 2021 report has been released. A consumer confidence report details the quality of our drinking water. There is an English and Spanish version available. A copy of this report will be posted at every kiosk .Please click the link below to review a copy.

Thank you, Melany
